The Steele Wolf (Iron Butterfly #2) - Page 4 "Odin, we are about to be attacked; warn the men." Odin stilled, cocked his head and listened, before giving me a short nod, and riding back to warn the men. Walking back to my horse, I kneeled and rubbed Faraway's leg as he made a big show of pretending to be lame.

Again, I dreamed I was back in the iron butterfly and being tortured. The pain felt real as the clamps buried themselves deep into the pressure points along my body. I felt weak and drained. Even though I knew I could access power now, the mere thought of the iron butterfly made me freeze in panic.
